

PRIVACY COMPLAINT FORM

Right to Information and Protection of Privacy Act (RTIPPA)
Personal Health Information Privacy and Access Act (PHIPAA)

Instructions: Use this form to submit a privacy complaint. A privacy complaint can be submitted when you believe that a New Brunswick public body or a health care custodian has mishandled your personal information (this includes personal health information). When you complain to our Office, you are asking us to review the matter to see if your information has been handled appropriately under the law.

Please know that we will send a copy of your complaint form to the public body or custodian. If you have any concerns about this please advise our Office upon filing your complaint.

What resolution/remedy are you seeking?

If we find that a privacy breach has in fact occurred, we may issue recommendations to the public body/custodian if necessary under the circumstances to prevent a similar incident from occurring again. Recommendations will be limited to improving compliance with the Act; broader forms of individual redress cannot be obtained through the complaint investigation process. For example, our Office cannot have someone fired, seek damages on behalf of individuals, or address criminal or civil culpability on the part of the public body/custodian.

Note: It may be necessary for our Office to access your personal information as part of our investigation of your privacy complaint. We will only access the information necessary to conduct this investigation and any information accessed will be held in the strictest of confidence. If you have any questions or concerns about this please make them known to the Commissioner's Office when you file this complaint.

I certify that the information given on this form, to the best of my knowledge, is true and complete.
